COLUMBIAN CYCLOPEDIA

35 Volumes

29,000 Pages ILLUSTRATED

STANDS THE TEST OF USE

For Teachers and for School Use

M. VALENTINE, D. D., Pres. Theol. Sem., Gettysburg, Penn.:

After using THE COLUMBIAN CYCLOPEDIA for more than three years, I take pleasure in saying that I have found no reason to qualify the favorable judgment formerly expressed, but, on the contrary, abundant ground for reaffirming and emphasizing it.

JAS. A. GRIER, D. D., Pres. Theol. Sem., Allegheny, Penn.:

I have used THE COLUMBIAN for about four years, and have found it reliable, thoroughly so. I have frequently said, and now repeat it, that I do not know any encyclopedia likely to give greater satisfaction to the user. This is the result of both observation and experience.

J. I. WARD, Principal Washington Street School, Toledo, O.:

I have used THE COLUMBIAN CYCLOPEDIA for one year. I know it to be superior to all its competitors.

C. H. CHURCHILL, Prof. of Physics, Oberlin College, Oberlin, O.:

Use will at once demonstrate its advantages over every cyclopedia which has preceded it.

T. J. SIMMONS, Pres. Union Female College, Eufaula, Ala.:

I did not buy THE COLUMBIAN until I had abundant opportunity for testing its merits. After a year's use it affords me pleasure to give it my unqualified indorsement.

GARRETSON, COX & CO., Publishers, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Only Cyclopedia

THAT IS ISSUED IN VOLUMES OF CONVENIENT SIZE.

Don't think that because THE COLUMBIAN is bound in small volumes the amount of information is small; the fact is, THE COLUMBIAN is the largest American cyclopedia ever published, containing over 15 per cent. more matter than any other.

THAT COMBINES A CYCLOPEDIA AND DICTIONARY.

You can never get the full benefit of either a dictionary or a cyclopedia till you have both in one. The combined work is more valuable to the student, showing the word or subject in full and in all its relations; saves the time of the busy man or woman, and can be more readily used by children, because there is but one work to consult. You always find what you want in THE COLUMBIAN.

THAT GIVES THE EXACT PRONUNCIATION OF ALL TITLES.

Dictionaries give the pronunciation of words, but THE COLUMBIAN is the only cyclopedia that gives the pronunciation of all words, biographical, geographical, scientific terms, etc., etc.

THAT IS UP TO DATE—1897—

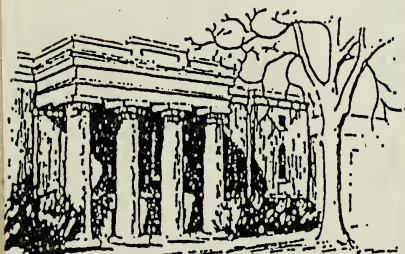

And can be kept up to date at an expense of half a cent a day. If you buy any other cyclopedia it rapidly loses its value, because it grows old. THE COLUMBIAN increases in value every year by the addition of an ANNUAL, which in a few years will form the most complete and valuable history of our own times extant. THE COLUMBIAN gives more information about the events of the last 10 years than all other cyclopedias put together.

REPORTS.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Church embodies all the redemptive forces of mankind. She yields precedence to none in this work. Her right is of divine origin. Christ declared her mission to be the "light of the world." In that definition He empowered her with paramount claims to everything that would aid her in diffusing her divine light. Hence her right to educate. As long as the Mastership of Christ is acknowledged, her right must remain valid; for it is from Him that she receives her orders.

That education is superior which has the highest ideal, and at the same time furnishes power to realize that ideal. This is just what Christian education does. It holds up Christ as both the pattern and the power of men. "Looking unto Jesus" is its motto. In Him is found the divine ideal of manhood, and through Him the power by which this manhood is made actual. The Church's apology for educating, then, is that she furnishes in Christ that education which is best adapted to man's mental and spiritual development.

We call upon the preachers of this Conference to manifest all possible interest in the common schools within the bounds of their respective appointments. Let them use their influence to secure none but Christian teachers; for Christian education should begin in the home, run through the common schools and be consummated in the colleges.

We have heard with pleasure and profit the address of Rev. A. Coke Smith, D. D., a former and beloved member of this Conference, representing the General Board of Education.

We nominate Rev. C. B. Smith as Conference Secretary and Treasurer of Education.

WOFFORD COLLEGE.

Your Board is glad to report the College in a prosperous condition. The body of the students is large and well behaved. A handsome gymnasium, largely a gift from the Alumni, has just been completed. We regret the fact that the football craze has reached our State. We denounce the game as brutal, as smacking of barbarism, as a waste of time and money, as a hindrance to intellectual pursuits, and as destructive to good morals. We recommend that the authorities of the College enact mild but firm regulations to see if an end cannot be put to Wofford's boys taking any part in these contests.

We call the attention of the Trustees of the College to the fact that they have failed to hand in a report to this Conference.

We ask that an assessment of $4,000 be made upon the Conference to meet the current expenses of the College.

COLUMBIA FEMALE COLLEGE.

Great improvements have been made in and upon the College building. There is an encouraging increase in patronage. The work of the College is progressing finely. We recommend that the second Sunday in March, or as soon thereafter as possible, be set aside as Columbia Female College Day, and on that day the pastors put before their congregations the needs of the College and take collections therefor.

FITTING SCHOOLS.

The Wofford College Fitting School is doing a good work. Your Board has had no report from the Carlisle Fitting School.

COKESBURY CONFERENCE SCHOOL.

We recommend that the Conference rescind its action at its last session, instructing the Trustees of Wofford College to sell this property, and we recommend further that the moral support of the Conference be given to this School, and that a Board of Trustees of seven clerical members be elected, in accordance with the provisions of the charter, and that this Board of Trustees be instructed to endorse the present arrangement of the former Board.

We ask that $700.00 be raised for the Paine and Lane Institutes, and that $440.00 be raised for the General Board of Education, and that the Joint Board of Finance arrange for the collection of these amounts.

We nominate the following Boards of Trustees:

Wofford College—Bishop W. W. Duncan, S. A. Weber, W. R. Richardson, E. T. Hodges, J. E. Carlisle, W. A. Rogers, G. W. Gage, T. B. Stackhouse, C. G. Dantzler, G. E. Prince, J. K. Jennings, George Cofield, H. Baer.

Columbia Female College—W. C. Power, H. W. Bays, J. W. Daniel, G. H. Waddell, J. A. Clifton, A. B. Watson, J. W. Kilgo, J. F. Lyon, R. H. Jennings, W. M. Connor, G. W. Parker, W. J. Murray, J. G. McCall.

Cokesbury Conference School—J. C. Chandler, S. D. Vaughan, D. Z. Dantzler, W. H. Hodges, Marion Dargan, W. L. Wait, S. H. Zimmerman. Wofford College and Carlisle Fitting Schools—The Trustees of Wofford College.

We ask the Bishop to make the following appointments:

Rev. S. Lander, President of Williamston College; J. A. Rice, President of Columbia Female College; G. W. Walker, President of the Paine Institute; C. B. Smith, Professor and Agent of Wofford College; L. F. Beaty, Assistant Editor of Sunday School Literature.

Respectfully submitted,

D. R. DUNCAN, President.

P. F. Kilgo, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

Another year of Sunday School work has passed, and we can look back thankful for what has been accomplished, sensible of our mistakes and shortcomings, and, by many tokens, hopeful of the future of this great cause. The Sunday School is a great evangelistic agency. Many a community has been won for Christ, many a Church has been built, by a Sunday School as the pioneer of the good work. It has gone before our revivals, and it has conserved and perpetuated them. It has guaranteed the perpetuity of revival influences in the catechumen and the catechist. The study of God's word has planted securely the seed of eternal life in the hearts of the young, while the Christian activity of those who have sown this good seed has reacted in richest blessing upon them. Teaching others, they have been taught. Leading the children to the Saviour, they have themselves found Him more and more precious to their souls. It is no disparagement of the pulpit to say that a working Church is worth more than the most eloquent preaching. And the Sunday School is the wide-open door of Christian work.

We desire to speak in this report, not to the members of this Conference alone, but to the whole Methodist Church in South Carolina. We wish to give to our Zion this watchword for the new year: "A Sunday School in every community, and every Methodist child in that school." This is not an empty vaunt, but the goal of our most earnest and faithful endeavor. There is crying need of such a campaign, communities untouched, homes (even near us—surrounded by us) unreached. Let us, brethren, get to work.

Then, when these neglected ones have been brought in, let the motto of each school be: "Each child for Christ."

Along these lines your Board has labored during the past year, sending out appeals for a rallying of our forces, and recruiting of our ranks; emphasizing the need of "personal work" on the part of teachers and officers of our schools (especially during the auspicious season of our protracted services) in bringing the young to an acceptance of Christ. We feel today that we really have nothing to add to these exhortations, but simply "go on."

We made some tentative movements towards the holding of Sunday School Institutes, but have not met with the encouragement hoped for. We are still convinced of the practicability and importance of these meetings on the plan proposed at last Conference. We are glad to believe that the Epworth League is growing in usefulness and extending its influence. The State Conference of the League in Sumter last June was a grand success. The work for young people is needed, and will go on. We heartily commend the cause to our preachers and people. Let every church in town and country, make an effort to organize a League this year.

We desire as a Board to express our appreciation of the able management of our Sunday School literature by our departed brother, Rev. W. D. Kirkland, D. D., until he left us so unexpectedly last May. We are pleased to see that the same high standard is maintained by his successor, Rev. Dr. James Atkins. We trust that all our schools will make it at once a point of interest and duty to supply themselves fully with these excellent periodicals.

We offer the following resolutions:

1. That the pastors make a special effort to induce all our schools to subscribe for the Sunday School Magazine and Visitor, and, as far as practicable, to put them in all our homes.
2. That we recommend that a "Home Department" be organized in connection with all our schools; and the pastors be requested to report to the Board as to its success.
3. That we recommend that the fifth Sunday be observed with religious services specially adapted to the children—on circuits several churches uniting, when practicable, for that purpose.

D. D. DANTZLER, President.

J. L. Stokes, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

The home life of our people is the strategical point of spiritual power whose control will determine in large measure the future character and career of the Church. The children of to-day will soon be the chief actors on the arena of life. They are rapidly forming life-lasting types of mental and moral character. We may as naturally look for health in the resident of a miasmatic marsh as to expect a robust Christianity to emerge from a home where absorbing worldliness or open sin taints every breath of life. The strongest man is unable to emancipate himself from the moulding influence of his environment, how much less the helpless child. The living minister in pulpit and pastorate must always be the chief agency in bringing grace to bear upon the home. But the ministry has limitations fixed by Him who created and commissioned it.

The most active pastor cannot be ubiquitous. The more rapidly he circulates among his people the shorter must be his stay at any given point. We need a messenger to the home whose visits may be as methodical as the sunlight itself, and who may be an abiding representative of the gospel and Church there.

The pastors of our day need the constant co-operation of editors and teachers if they would lift their people to higher conceptions and purer experience of gospel grace in the home. We rejoice to know that in our books and periodicals we have just such an agency as this age demands, and we believe no more fruitful work is done in any department of Church enterprise than that which is done in circulating them among our people, promoting thereby a reading habit among them.

We congratulate the Church on the fine report made by our publishing house for the past year, and commend the careful, conservative policy which has led to such notable results. The Christian Advocate is edited with conspicuous ability. Its editorial utterances are remarkably clear, strong, judicious and spiritual.

The departments entitled "Around the World" and "News from Other Churches" are admirably adapted to elevate and broaden the mental purview of its readers, while the "Findings from the Field" keeps us in touch with the whole body ecclesiastic. It ought to be taken not only by all the preachers, but by every layman who wishes to be an intelligent leader of Christian work in his community.

The Methodist Review has achieved a most gratifying success under its present able editorial and business management. It is supplying a necessary agency of culture and grace with much credit to our large and growing Church. We commend it most heartily to all our people, but to our young preachers and laymen of liberal education it ought to be considered indispensable.

The Methodist Review of Missions is strictly a first-class publication. It cannot fail to stir the evangelical spirit of any man or people who may be induced to read its varied and thrilling accounts of general Missionary work.

The World for Christ is well calculated to bring our children in full sympathy with, and make them eager workers for, the cause.

Our Sunday School periodicals and the Epworth Era are well worthy the united patronage of the Church. Our own Conference Organ, the time honored Southern Christian Advocate, stands nearest of all our papers to our hearts. Its name is hallowed in memories running to the happy childhood experiences of thousands of its readers. Its power for good in the past transcends the capacity of imagination to picture.

It is enough to say of its present excellences that they hold up well with what has gone before.

It is thoroughly worthy of our earnest and united support. It ought to be in every home in our bounds.

We welcome the announcement of the probable early publication of the annals of our Conference by Rev. A. M. Chietzberg, D. D. A book of 300 pages for one dollar, on a subject of universal interest and by so competent a writer, ought easily to sell to the number of at least 5,000 copies. Its publication will be secured if 1,000 copies are subscribed for. We earnestly hope the brethren of the Conference will respond to the opportunity so freely that its publication will not be delayed.

We offer the following resolutions:

Resolved 1st. That we endorse the careful administration of our Publishing House which has carried it safely through a year of great stringency.

Resolved 2nd. That we urge all preachers in charge to present this subject to their people early in the year and that they push the circulation of all our periodicals, especially the Southern Christian Advocate, as much as possible.

D. Z. DANTZLER, Chairman.

Chas. N. Rogers, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF COLPORTAGE.

The time has come when the Church must take part in the great educational work of the day. She stands committed to this by virtue of the mission upon which she has been sent by her great Founder. The command, "Go teach all nations," carries with it the sacred obligation of using all facilities and means within her reach for the uplifting and final salvation of the race.

Christian literature, in the Providence of God, in its silent, yet forceful way, stands in close relationship to the living voice of the pulpit as one of the greatest auxiliaries employed by Christianity in the accomplishment of her great work of "spreading Scriptural holiness over these lands."

It is the pleasure of your Board of Colportage to report that in the work of the past year great advancement has been made in the special line of the sale and distribution of religious literature among our people. By reference to the report of our Colporter, Rev. T. J. Gattis, we find that the volume of business done by him since the last session of our Conference, has reached the sum of $6,575. He has visited our District Conferences and sold an average of three hundred dollars worth of books at each of these centres of influence. Brother Gattis deserves the thanks and highest commendation of our preachers and people for the excellent work which he has done among us during the year.

As it is desirable that the work so admirably begun during the past year be continued and more fully developed, we therefore offer the following for adoption by the Conference:

Resolved, 1. That Rev. T. J. Gattis be and he is hereby recognized as the Colporter for this Conference for the ensuing year.

Resolved 2. That it is the sense of this Conference that after another year, the interests of our Church will be best subserved by having the headquarters of our Conference Colporter at Columbia, S. C.

Respectfully submitted,

H. B. BROWNE, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

Your Committee begs leave to make the following report: We deem it unnecessary to repeat year after year words of commendation of the grand work done by the American Bible Society. Dr. Law, agent of this Society, has furnished the Conference with many valuable and gratifying facts and figures showing the dependence, specially of our Foreign Missionary operations, upon this Society for a supply of Bibles. That interest in this great cause is taking hold of the hearts of our people is easily seen from the following facts: In 1894, forty-two charges of this Conference turned over to the Bible Society $180.70; in 1895, eighty-five charges raised $435.

The simple statement of this fact should suffice to stimulate intelligent and consecrated ministers to unremitting efforts in the interest of this great cause. Your Committee would recommend that the preachers be requested to take up a collection during the ensuing year in each charge for the American Bible Society.

J. G. CLINKSCALES, Chairman.

REPORT OF PUBLISHING COMMITTEE.

The Publishing Committee of the Southern Christian Advocate beg leave to submit the following report:

Our paper has received the same generous welcome and support accorded it in the past. The books of the publisher show that there has been an increase in "bona fide" subscriptions of about 500 during the year now closing.

Our Editor, Rev. John O. Willson, with his characteristic energy and faithfulness, has given his time and strength to promote the important interests committed to his care. During his absence in Europe and Palestine, Rev. Jas. E. Grier has held the paper up to its usual standard of excellence.

Col. Hoyt, the publisher, has been prompt in sending out the paper each week, laboring to put it in the homes of the people as early after publication as possible.

The Royalty account has been audited and found correct.

As a Committee, we urge the brethren of this Conference to make diligent effort to place the Advocate in every Methodist home within our bounds.

L. F. BEATY, Chairman.

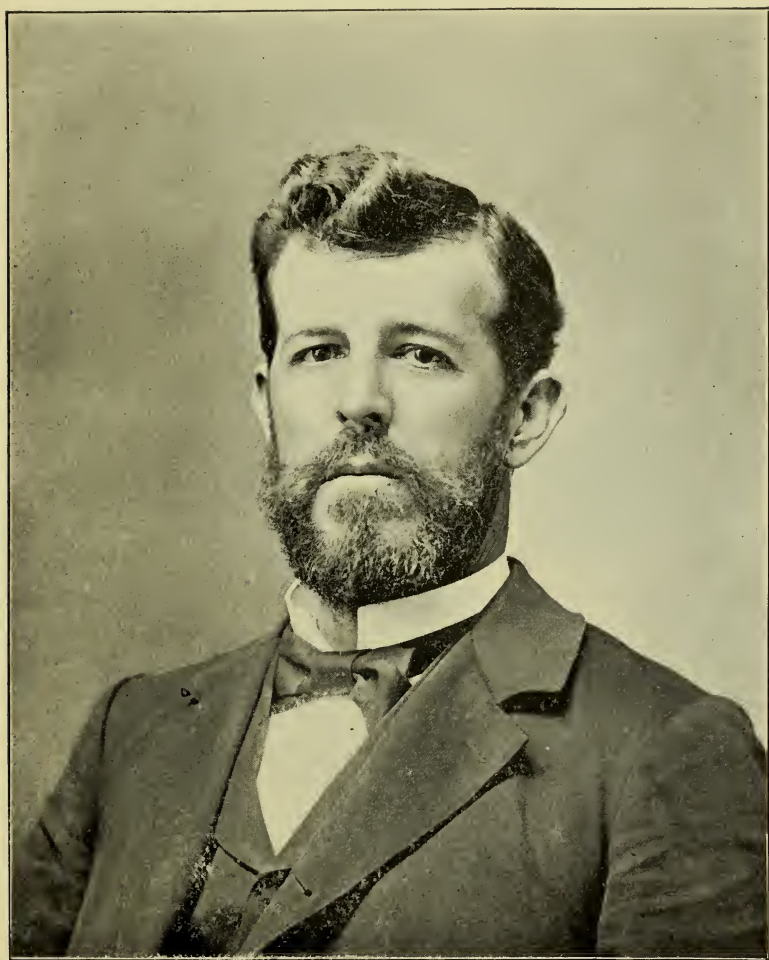

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS

The Committee on the District Conference Journals, after a careful examination of the Journals of all the districts, except that of the Rock Hill District, which the committee regret was not presented to them, beg leave to submit the following report:

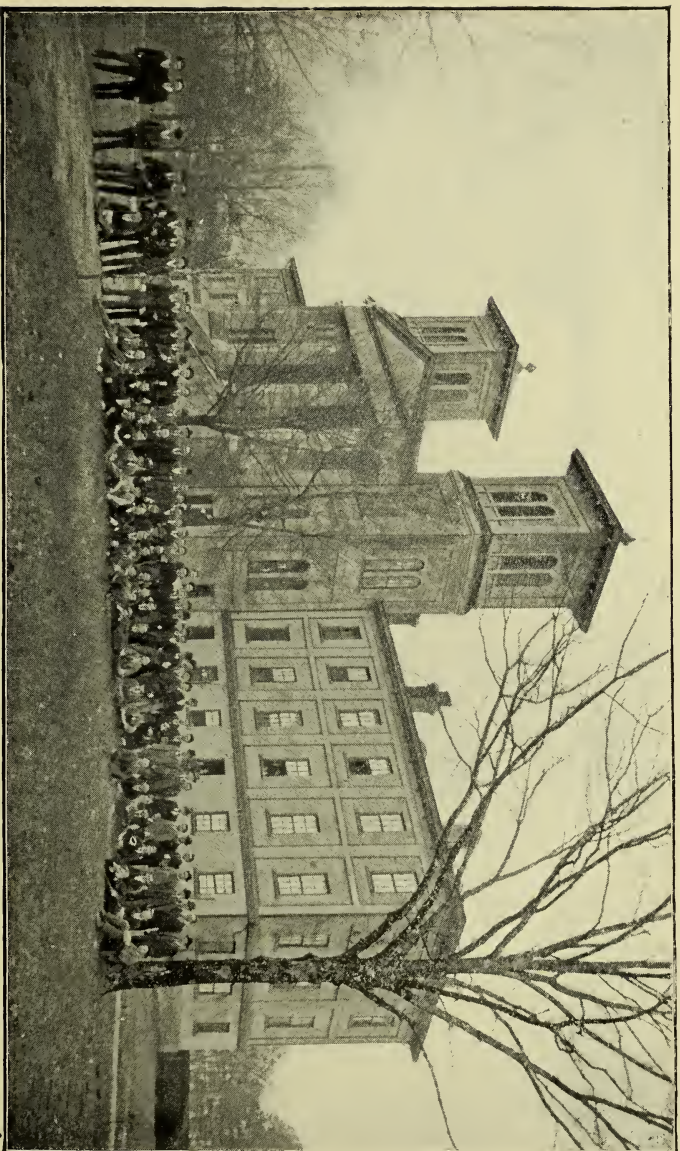

Your Committee find that the Journals as a whole are well kept, being a marked improvement on the records of the past few years. Some of the Journals are models of neatness and accuracy, and the secretaries deserve credit for their careful work, while in others there is still room for improvement. The Journal of the Cokesbury District has no outward mark nor title on the fly leaf to indicate what the book is. The Journal of the Spartanburg District has no index on the margin for the convenience of reference. The Columbia District should have a larger and better book for the preservation of its records.

Respectfully submitted,

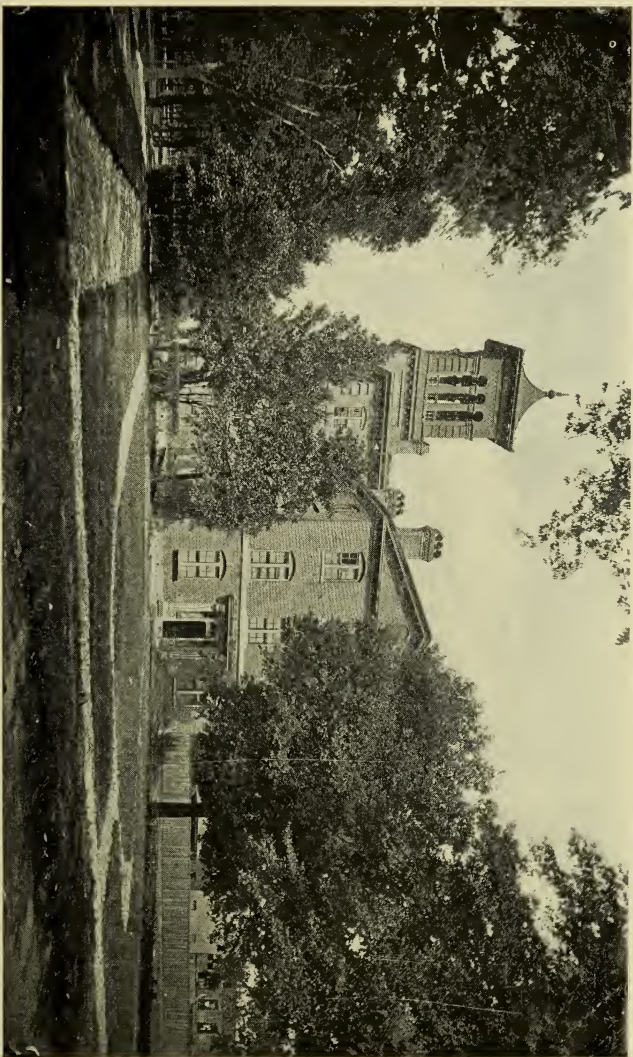

J. B. HUMBERT,
R. E. STACKHOUSE,
J. M. FRIDY,
F. M. HICKLIN.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MINUTES.

The account of the publishers of the Minutes was submitted to the Committee and the same was approved. The Treasurer reports as follows:

Received from the charges.. . . .	$536.18
Received from the Legal Conference.. . . .	20.00

Total.. . . .	$556.18
---------------	----------

We nominate Revs. E. O. Watson and S. H. Zimmerman as editors and publishers of the Minutes of the Conference, and recommend the publication of 5,000 copies. We recommend that an assessment of $800 be made for the publication of Minutes next year; and in order if possible, to secure the collection of the whole of this amount, we recommend that the pastors take subscriptions for the Minutes in their charges at fifteen cents per copy.

J. C. CHANDLER, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS AND TRUSTEES OF THE EPWORTH ORPHANAGE.

Dear Brethren:—One year ago your Board reported the Epworth Orphanage about ready for occupancy. The property was then estimated as worth $15,000. Its value has increased to $25,000.

Our Superintendent, Rev. G. H. Waddell, entered upon his work promptly and vigorously, and his success has been most gratifying. He has manifested tact and ability. Our Auditing Committee carefully went over all the accounts, and we find the following:

Amounts received from all sources	$11,630.98
---	-------------

Of this amount $8,529.70 were invested in buildings and improvements as follows:

The main building known as the "R. L. Coleman House," repaired, beautified and furnished.

The Superintendent's home, known as the "A. J. Stokes House," built and furnished.

The Chapel and School House built and furnished.

All necessary outbuildings supplied.

A printing establishment, well equipped for the best job work, has been supplied. We find $2,789 have been spent for current expenses on all accounts. Leaving a balance of $322.28 in the treasury, December 1st.

The farm has produced reasonably well.

During the year thirty-six children were received into the Orphanage. Of these one has died and one was withdrawn, leaving us with thirty-four.

A general improvement is noted in the manners, morals, studiousness and work of the children. Twenty-one have been converted and joined the Church.

The school, Miss Alice Raysor, teacher, is doing excellent work. The children are being advanced as well as thoroughly taught.

The Sunday School is in charge of Brother George Mannotte, who is doing the best work of his life.

The Home is giving entire satisfaction.

We make the following recommendations:

1st. That the Presiding Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. George H. Waddell as Superintendent of the Epworth Orphanage.

2nd. That the pastors be requested to appoint Committees on the Orphanage in every Church or charge where there are none, and to urge them to work for the support of the Orphanage. That as far as possible, the pastors obviate the necessity of the Superintendent going out to solicit support because his presence is needed at home every day.

Respectfully submitted,

A. J. STOKES, President of Board.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE RELATIONS.

Your Committee begs leave to report as follows:

We recommend that the Superannuated Relation be granted for the ensuing year to the following members of this Conference, viz.: F. Auld, M. L. Banks, J. C. Bissell, Sidi H. Browne, J. M. Carlisle, W. Carson, W. A. Clarke, A. M. Chrietberg, R. L. Duffie, L. M. Hamer, A. W. Jackson, Simpson Jones, L. A. Johnson, P. F. Kistler, A. H. Lester, L. C. Loyal, W. W. Mood, H. M. Mood, J. J. Neville, I. J. Newberry, J. A. Porter, W. C. Patterson, J. F. Smith, J. A. Wood, A. W. Walker, J. J. Workman, M. M. Brabham, O. A. Darby.

Your Committee would recommend the following for the Supernumery Relation, viz.: A. M. Attaway, A. W. Attaway, E. L. Archer, M. M. Ferguson, J. W. Neeley, J. M. Rogers, T. E. Wannamaker, John Manning.
J. C. STOLL, Chairman.

J. E. Carlisle, Secretary.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

The Church reaffirms her position with reference to the use and sale of alcoholic liquors.

She believes it to be the bounden duty of the individual to totally abstain from the use of spirituous liquors as a beverage; and that the State should, as early as it can be practically accomplished, prohibit the manufacture and sale of the same, except for mechanical and medicinal or scientific purposes.

To accomplish these desirable ends, all our Sunday Schools and secular schools should emphasize in every legitimate way the danger and ruin be- longing to the indulgence of the appetite in this deadly poison.

Therefore your Committee would recommend, that as ministers and teachers we all do more to educate public sentiment against this great curse of our land by preaching and teaching from the Bible and our discipline, the truths therein contained against it.

Respectfully submitted,

T. G. HERBERT, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The Missionary spirit, whether expressing itself in our home territory or in heathen lands, is that of our Divine Lord, who, before his ascension into Heaven, said to His disciples, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." The increasing spirit of enterprise by reason of which cotton mills are being established in many towns and cities throughout the State, thus bringing together a great number of operatives, increases the demand upon us for Missionary work.

The Mission Board has established a number of new charges, and is glad to be able to report real progress in the fields already occupied.

Cumberland Mission, in the city of Charleston, was never in better condition. The pastor has had remarkable success during the year. A large number has been received into the Church. The spiritual condition of the membership has been much improved, and the financial condition of the charge is considerably in advance of last year.

Reevesville and St. Paul's.—The pastor has done faithful work and reports an increase of sixteen members. One Church building has been erected, and more money has been raised for ministerial support than was collected last year.

Port Royal.—The report from this charge is indicative of faithful work on the part of the pastor, and that much success has been achieved.

Newberry City Mission.—Much success has been achieved in this charge. The faithfulness of the pastor has been rewarded by a large increase in the membership, and by corresponding success spiritually and financially. This Mission is in great need of a Church building.

Parksville Mission.—A parsonage has been recently purchased in this charge, which will contribute much to its future success.

Green Street and Brookland.—The pastor has been faithful and efficient. Considerable success has been achieved throughout the various departments of Church work. The mission is in comparatively good condition.

Rock Hill City Mission.—This Mission has been served in connection with Rock Hill Circuit, and promises to be a very successful field. A lot costing three hundred dollars, on which to build a church, has been purchased and paid for.

Bethel and Duncan.—This charge is in good condition. The pastor has had a successful year.

Florence City Mission.—There has been much improvement in this charge. The membership has increased more than a hundred per cent., and the Sunday School has increased in proportion. The pastor has done a successful year's work.

McColl Mission.—Comparatively little progress has been made in this charge. It is necessary, however, to continue our work, and thus give the gospel to the poor. The Church embraces about one hundred members and two Church buildings.

Sumter City Mission.—The pastor of this charge has done a faithful year's work. Fourteen have been added to the membership, and a greater number have professed faith in Christ. Two hundred and fifty dollars have been collected for the purpose of securing a larger building in which to worship.

Swansea Mission.—This charge is in good condition, and the outlook is hopeful.

Wagener Mission.—This Mission was faithfully served, and was never in better condition.

Anderson City Mission.—This charge has sixty-seven members, and a Sunday School numbering more than one hundred. It also has a Church building worth $850. The charge is in good condition.

Walhalla Mission.—This charge is in a hopeful condition. It was faithfully served, and it gives promise of good results.

North Pickens.—This Mission is in good condition. The pastor has wrought faithfully and successfully.

The Board has established four new Missions, viz.: "Richland and Granby Mills Mission," in the city of Columbia; "Greenville City Mission"; "Laurens City Mission," and "Camden City Mission."

A. J. CAUTHEN, President.

J. W. Daniel, Secretary.

IN MEMORIAM.

MEMOIRS OF PREACHERS WHO DIED IN 1896.

BISHOP A. G. HAYGOOD.

Bishop A. G. Haygood, D. D., L.L. D., was born in 1839, and died January 19, 1896. Between these two dates lies the great field of a sweet, fruitful and beautiful life. Upon him, like sunshine, lingered the smile of God.

Wherever he labored humanity became purer and nobler and the cause of Christianity greatly prospered. He held at various times, almost every position within the gift of the Church. He met every demand and every requirement of those positions. He spared not himself in the work of the Lord.

As a preacher and pastor he was a model. His sermons were clear, scriptural, logical and eloquent. Through them many were brought "to a knowledge of the truth as it is in Jesus" and scores and hundreds were "built up in their most holy faith." Occasionally he was a rare and wonderful preacher. In him burned the fires of the great orator. His audiences would be swayed and thrilled like those of the matchless Christmas Evans of Wild Wales. The impressions he made at such times were eternal.

For a number of years he held the office of Secretary of the Sunday School Board of our Church. Here he brought order out of chaos. He laid firmly and strongly the foundation upon which stands the magnificent system of helps, &c., for the young people of the Church.

As the General Agent of the Slater Fund he compassed the United States, in his travels. Everywhere his touch was a blessing. No work was neglected, and in discharging the trying duties of this position, he won the well-done of a grateful nation.

As a College President he was all that could be desired. He was the friend of every struggling, earnest young man. To them he was more than Paul was to Titus and Timothy. His kindness to them, they will never forget. Under his guiding hand Emory College entered upon a career of almost marvellous success. Among the great Presidents of that Institution, A. G. Haygood will always stand in the front rank.

In the field of literature he was able and practical. His book "Our Children," attracted marked attention in America and in Europe, while "Our Brother in Black" is the very best book that has ever been published on the negro question. His writings will carry his name—wreathed and garlanded with honor—down the centuries.

As a Bishop he was thoughtful, painstaking and sympathetic. Twice the great honor of an election to this exalted office came to him. His career demonstrated that the election was the voice of God. The people and the preachers felt that he was a man that they could love and trust. To him they gave their love and confidence. In the very zenith of his life and usefulness death came. When he was "touched by the ice cold hand," he was not startled or surprised. He knew that to obey the summons was to pass "the silent sentry at the ancient portal," and be forever with God. With a smile upon his face he vanished from our sight to live in endless glory on the mountains of eternal joy.

J. THOS. PATE.

REV. SAMUEL LEARD.

About the beginning of this century, there came from the North of Ireland, a sturdy, reformed Presbyterian, who, with his young wife, a Virginia Episcopalian, settled in the Cedar Springs neighborhood, in Abbeville District. Sprung from this pious pair, our brother, Samuel Leard, first saw the light the 12th of February, 1815; and, from that day to the 9th of May, 1896, his last day in the flesh, he felt the precious influence of the early training he received from them. His parents, tho' devoted to their Church, were not too bigoted to entertain the Methodist traveling preachers, through whom, no doubt, they heard of the Mt. Ariel Academy, in the eastern part of the District. If Erskine College had been in existence then, it is very probable that Samuel's education would have been conducted there, and that instead of beginning his life as a Methodist preacher, he might have been a minister in his father's Church. Who shall estimate the debt the Churches owe to their educational institutions!

At Cokesbury, he heard the preaching of such men as Glern, and Travis, and Huggins, and Wightman, and his daily contact with the Rector, Joseph Travis, soon induced him to accept the peculiar views of the Methodists, toward which, however, he had somewhat leared before. After his conversion, in 1833, he joined the Methodist Church under the ministry of William M. Wightman and Theophilus Huggins, the Cokesbury Circuit preachers.

Very soon after this, he was licensed to preach; and, at the Columbia session, in 1835, on his twentieth birthday, he was admitted on trial into the South Carolina Conference. From his first appointment as junior preacher under Joel W. Townsend, on the Winnsboro Circuit, to the close of his second pastorate on Manning Station, when he retired from active work, whether he labored on Circuit, Station, District, or Mission to the blacks, he evinced the same earnest devotion to duty and absorbing interest in the great cause to which he felt himself committed. In all these varied fields, he labored with conspicuous ability and success, his territory reaching from Charleston to the Blue Ridge, and from the Savannah to Fayetteville, his active ministry extending through an uninterrupted period of fifty-three years. Nor did his labors cease entirely with his active relation to the Conference: but, during his nine years of superannuation, his pen and his tongue continued to render such service as his failing powers allowed.

Perhaps no part of his ministerial life, however, was more pleasant to him or more profitable to the cause of our Redeemer than the years he devoted to the special service of the children. His pure, tender spirit yearned for the welfare of the rising race; and the light of eternity alone will reveal how much his consecrated labors did to produce our wonderful progress in the Sunday School cause since then.

As a preacher, he was plain, clear, logical, earnest, and convincing. His aspect, bland, persuasive, and commanding, prepossessed his congregation in his favor; and his modest and transparent sincerity convinced all his hearers that he had personal experience of the great truths he offered for their acceptance.

A very striking and delightful characteristic was his simple power in prayer. His language, his tones, his fervid humility, his directness of approach through our Lord Jesus Christ—all clearly showed his consciousness of his being in the Divine presence, and drove away all thought of profane ostentation. In all his praying, he never delivered eloquent lectures to his congregation, nor took the name of the Lord, his God in vain.

As a writer, he was attractive, instructive and forcible. His published delineations of the lives and characters of the older preachers were very valuable contributions to the history of the Church; and it is to be deeply regretted that much such matter from his facile pen lies still unpublished.

As a man, he was a model Christian gentleman. He seemed to understand the meaning of the phrase, "In honor preferring one another." He kept his own merits in the background, and loved to dwell upon the good qualities of his brethren. His friendships were strong, his affections profound and all-embracing. In his family, he challenged the reverent esteem of every member by his pure, sweet, gentle, Christian bearing toward all.

His surviving family, the devoted widow and the sons and daughters, all rise up to call him blessed, while with one accord they do honor to his memory by following in his footsteps. At the house of a worthy son in Raleigh, where he was making his home for the time, in the beautiful springtide, after a very few days of total weakness, he heard the summons to his Heavenly home; and he promptly made the gentle transfer from a life of peace on earth to the life of bliss on high.

Friend of my former years, farewell! May we all follow thee, as thou our common Lord!

S. LANDER.

REV. C. H. PRITCHARD.

Claudius Hornby Pritchard, son of Joseph Price and Claudia Hornby Pritchard, was born in Charleston, S. C., October 14th, 1821. When he was about a year old his parents moved to Cheraw, S. C. They were Episcopalians, but his mother carried her children to the Methodist Church whenever her own was not open. He was converted at a meeting in the Methodist Church and joined it at the age of sixteen. He professed sanctification a short time after, and was called to preach, joining the South Carolina Conference in Camden, S. C., in February, 1841, when a little over nineteen years of age. On the 31st of October, 1844, he married Miss Mary Blount Reynolds, of Camden; she died in Abbeville, S. C., July 8th, 1885. And in the same old town of Abbeville his spirit returned to God on Thursday evening, March 5th, 1896.

Such is but a frame-work of facts, names and dates. The real life-history of this veritable hero of the Cross will never be told on earth, but his record is rich on high. We all knew him, revered him, loved him. No man ever more fully merited the respect and trust of his fellowmen than did Claudius H. Pritchard. Unostentatious, his innate nobility was nevertheless conspicuous in his daily walk. The very atmosphere seemed purified by his presence. His Christianity was an ever-present part of his life—nay, more: it was his life. His loyalty to Methodism is attested by the labors in which he wore out his body. After serving successfully on Circuits, Stations and Districts forty-two years, he was forced by ill-health to ask for a superannuated relation at the Conference in Greenville in December, 1882. He recovered during the following year, and preached as opportunity offered, and at the Conference in 1883 he was restored to the effective list. At the Conference in December, 1884, he was again superannuated, but he took charge of Abbeville Circuit (five appointments) the following April, and continued to work on Circuits until January 13, 1895, when an injury sustained by being thrown from his buggy—while on the way to his appointment (in Kinard Circuit)—forced him to give up his loved employment.

After passing nearly four weeks in the Hospital at Columbia, he spent five months with his son, Mr. T. W. Pritchard, in Charlotte, N. C., moving from there to Abbeville, S. C. Last summer, with the assistance of friends, he bought a house. He did not, as he hoped, recover his health, and finally it failed entirely.

Talented and faithful, Brother Pritchard rendered efficient and acceptable service in all of his appointments and duties. Endowed with a splendid intellect, his sermons were always clear and strong, his fervent delivery adding force to his earnest, eloquent presentation of the great Gospel truths. As an administrator of Church discipline he was able, fair and fearless. For all mankind—saints and sinners—his pure heart was full of love and compassion.

Brother Pritchard was a modest Christian gentleman; he was not what has come to be known as a “pushing” man, else, probably, he had fared better and lived longer. His character and capabilities fitted him for the highest honors in the Church, yet he was most often found rendering cheerful service on hard and poorly paid appointments. The ranks of “the old guard” are breaking more and more, and Conference re-unions will seem less like old times now that this veteran has been called above to hear the “well done, thou good and faithful servant.”

The last days of this saintly man were as his previous years—peaceful, trustful, joyful. He said God had been very good in taking care of him and giving him a comfortable home, and he would like to stay and preach to the people around; but that, if He wanted to take him unto Himself, he was ready to go. He was confined to bed only three days; he was unable to turn himself—suffering little pain, except when an attempt was made to move his swollen limbs.

A short time before he died he clasped his hands (interlacing the fingers), as he often did when going to sleep, resting them upon his breast, breathed quietly awhile—then the lips parted a little, the chest heaved slightly, and all his troubles were over! Many other sadly happy tokens of his lovely character are to be cherished in the memories of his death-bed, but they are too sacred for publication.

He was buried on Friday afternoon, March 6th, 1896, by the side of his beloved wife in Long Cane Cemetery, near Abbeville.

To the surviving children, Misses Maggie and Mary and Messrs. Thomas W. and Samuel R. Pritchard, heartfelt sympathy goes out in loving sorrow. With but a slight interval in superannuation on account of feebleness, Brother Pritchard was emphatically “effective” for almost fifty-five years. Blessed, indeed, is this dear old saint, for truly he was “pure in heart.”

SIDI H. BROWNE.

REV. JOHN A. MOOD.

Rev. John A. Mood passed to his eternal reward on April 18th, 1896. For a number of years he had not been strong, and, in view of infirmity attendant upon declining years, had at the Conference of 1892, asked and received a superannuated relation. For a time thereafter he resided in Oxford, Ga., but in 1894 returned to this State and lived at Spartanburg. Not long after his return he was attacked with serious illness, from which he never fully recovered. Amid these trying circumstances there appeared, in accordance with his previous character, a strong confidence in God, and resignation to the Divine will. This was the fulfillment of the prophecy of his previous life. It was his privilege to enter upon a rich parental inheritance—rich, in that greatest of possessions, nobility of character, highness of purpose, indissolubly bound with devotion to Christ and His Church. His father was the Rev. John Mood, once a member of this body. His mother was Catherine McFarland. Their children "arise and call them blessed." Four of their sons became members of the South Carolina Conference. Trained in this atmosphere he was early converted, and joined Bethel Church in Charleston, the city of his birth. Here he had the best spiritual opportunities of his day. These developed him, and when the Spirit of God said: "Who will go for us?" he answered, "Here am I, send me." In 1847, he was admitted into the traveling connection. He was an excellent preacher; careful in preparation, systematic in arrangement, drawing from his resourceful mind, and fields of research. His sermons were as beaten oil. Moreover there was always that cultured pleasantness of manner, that spirit of sincere friendliness, about him which made him friends wherever he went. He was the friend of every man. He was a modest man, and humble, and never thought of himself as highly as he ought. But his brethren esteemed him, and the Master knew his worth. The minutes show that he spent eleven years on Stations; twenty-three on Circuits; ten on Missions; one as supernumerary; and three as a Superannuate. His marriage, November 23rd, 1853, to Miss Mary C. Easterling, resulted most happily. His life was hers, and hers was his. His home life was loving and bright. His son, the Rev. R. E. Mood, of this Conference, and two daughters with his loved wife, survive him. He sleeps in Oakland Cemetery, Spartanburg. But the Saviour's promise spreads over that grave the light of immortal hope: "For the hour cometh when they that are in their graves shall come forth; they that have done good unto the resurrection of life!"

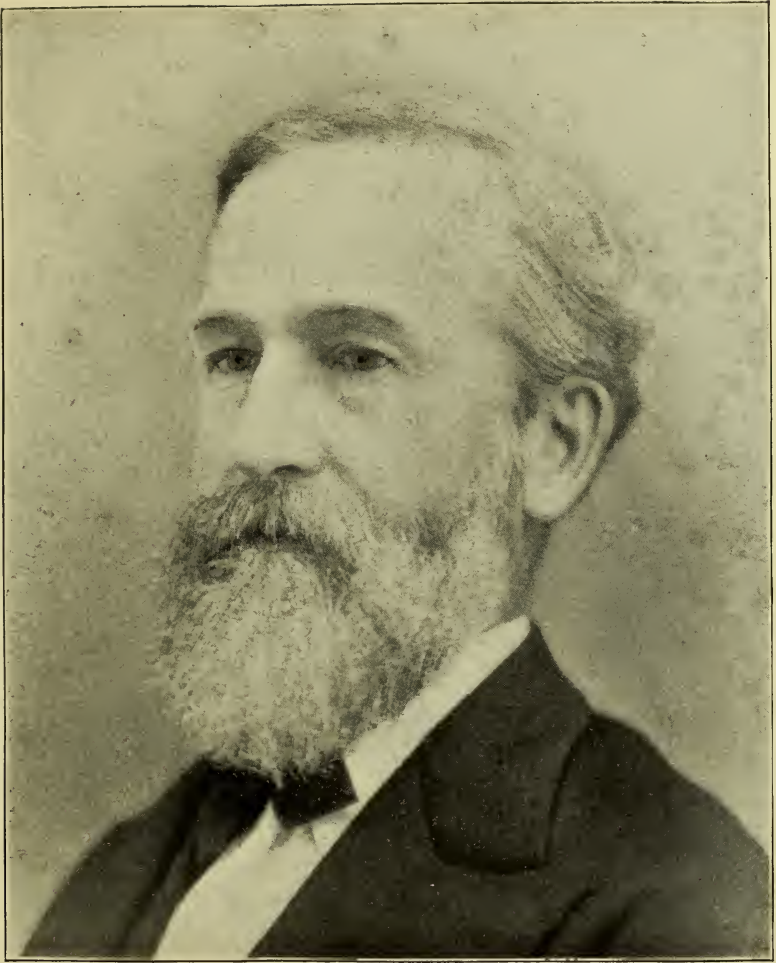

WM. A. ROGERS.

REV. W. D. KIRKLAND, D. D.

Wellborn Davies Kirkland was born in the old parsonage of Cypress Circuit, Charleston District, South Carolina, August 17, 1849.

His father was the Rev. William C. Kirkland of blessed memory. The older members of this Conference still hold in loving regard this saintly man of God, who, during the twenty-seven years of his ministry, by his sweet-spirited and devoted life, entrenched himself in the hearts of his brethren. He was taken suddenly ill while making a round on his last (the Greenville) Circuit, and died at the home of Dr. William H. Austin, Greenville County, South Carolina, March 31, 1864.

The mother of our departed brother, Mrs. Virginia L. Kirkland, the very mention of whose name recalls afresh memories of her spotless life and devotion to the Church, was the daughter of Rev. Joseph Galluchat, who was for many years a preacher in our Church, a man of eminent piety and noted for his intellectual attainments and pulpit power.

It is but natural that the child of such ancestry should become the subject of early religious impressions, and so it was. Davies Kirkland, as from early childhood he was called by those nearest to him, was converted under the ministry of Rev. J. Emory Watson, when fourteen years of age, and while a student in the Cokesbury Conference School, located in Cokesbury, S. C. At this time he joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. The clearcut, well-defined religious experience of the boy gradually ripened throughout all the testing experiences of school and college life until it crystallized into the stalwart faith and joyful hope which characterized his Christian manhood.

After leaving Cokesbury, he entered Wofford College, from which he graduated in 1870. It was here that he first felt a call to the ministry, and we may add that it was here that he began to display those rare gifts which marked him as a young man of more than ordinary promise and power. In the class-room and in the work of the literary societies he took high rank, and was more than once honored by his fellow-students. His graduating speech on South Carolina in subject, matter and delivery was of so high an order that it still lingers in the memory of those who heard it. So thrilling was its effect that strong men wept as the young graduate told of the heroic past and depicted the future glory of the old Palmetto State.

Leaving College, he was admitted December following, on trial into the South Carolina Conference, which met in Charleston. His first charge was Colleton Circuit, to which he was appointed junior preacher, with Rev. Charles Wilson as his senior. The following year he was sent to Marion Street, Columbia, where he remained four years. During his pastorate here he was married to Mrs. Marion M. Porcher, nee Palmer, November 27, 1872. In 1876 he was placed in charge of Greenville Station. Here, early in the year, his health failed and he was forced to take needed rest. Having been elected during the year to a professorship in Columbia Female College, he entered upon his duties there in September. Finding that the work of the recitation room was injurious to his health, he resigned during the ensuing Conference and asked for regular work. He was then appointed to Mars Bluff Station, where he remained four years. In 1881 and 1882, he served Providence Circuit. In 1883 he was appointed by Bishop McTyeire, Presiding Elder of the Cokesbury District. Here he remained three years. At the Conference of 1885 he was elected editor of the Southern Christian Advocate. He was re-elected in 1889 and yet again in 1893. In 1894, the General Conference elected him to the office of Sunday School Editor, which he held to the day of his death, May 31, 1896.

By way of resume we note that he served the Church in Circuit, Station and District work fifteen years, and as editor more than ten years. In all these fields he labored not only with great acceptability, but with eminent success and usefulness.

He was chosen by his Conference as delegate to the General Conferences of 1886, 1890, and 1894, being chairman of the delegation to the last named. Emory College conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Divinity.

He brought into his life-work a good, religious experience. His confidence was always strong, his faith unshaken. He was never very demonstrative as a Christian, nor did he at anytime obtrude his religious experience upon others, yet he was always ready at the proper time and place to bear testimony to the saving power of the gospel of Christ. Who that ever heard him, in his happy pulpit efforts, tell of his Lord's sacrifice for sinners and his triumph over death, questioned that he felt the virtue of this sacrifice and the power of this resurrection in his own life?

As a pastor he was most conscientious, painstaking and laborious. He was a methodical worker, and so systematized his time as to reach the highest efficiency in the various functions of his office. He had organizing and executive abilities of a high order, and the charges he served furnished evidence of this fact in their enlarged growth and influence. He had wisdom and tact that enabled him to touch men for good and inspire them to better living. As a wise general he discerned the strategic points and led the Lord's host to victory. He worked for results and saw the pleasure of the Lord prosper in his hands.

Dr. Kirkland was an excellent preacher. The arrangement and dress of his thoughts were logical, simple and graceful. His sermons, usually prepared with great care, were suggestive, instructive and helpful to his hearers. He loved to preach. He came before his audience as with a message from God. He delivered his message with a serious, tearful earnestness that won attention, conquered prejudice and carried conviction to the heart. Always edifying and impressive, there were times when the multitudes were overwhelmed by the power of his eloquence and tender pathos. "He not only swayed congregations, but God honored his message to the salvation of many souls and the upbuilding of believers in the faith."

In the responsible place of Presiding Elder he was "wise in counsel, fertile in resources, and carefully considerate of all the interests of the Church." His fine judgment of men, his wide knowledge of the fields to be cultivated, and withal the breadth of the man that could see the needs of the work at large as well as the peculiar needs of his own district, enabled him to render the Church most excellent service in this office.

Any notice of him, however, would be incomplete that failed to emphasize his editorial work. In early manhood he had shown great fondness for journalism, and during a busy pastorate his pen often furnished excellent matter to the press. His editorials were trenchant and timely and always on live issues. His style was clear, vigorous and highly entertaining. Whatever the subject discussed there was to be seen the touch of a master's hand. He thought for himself; was bold and aggressive in spirit. Upon the arena of discussion he stood as a great intellectual athlete, prepared to hold his own against all comers. While naturally not fond of controversy, yet in defense of truth, as he held it, he did not hesitate to measure lance with the strongest opponent.

Truth, indeed, was his guiding star. For it he stood prepared to sacrifice, if need be, that which would minister to his own popularity or preferment among his fellows. Mistaken he might be, but false to his convictions, never! His zeal for truth doubtless made him often appear unsympathetic even to his brethren who differed from him, yet in his feelings he always distinguished between the person and the cause. Those whom he opposed most were usually greeted by him. While his writings show a good deal of that which, in character, may be styled controversial, much appears that reveals the tenderer side of his nature. He had words of comfort for God's people and as tender as a mother's touch for the weak and sorrowing ones.

The "Old Southern" had always taken high rank among her sister advocates, yet at no time in her history was she stronger, more prosperous or more popular than under his able management. Here he developed, as editor, that power as a thinker and writer which easily placed him among the leaders in the Church and won for him that recognition which resulted in his election to the more responsible position of Sunday School Editor. In this act the Church laid hands upon a loyal son and one fitted by natural endowment and experience for the work assigned him. The excellent character of the Sunday school literature bearing his "imprimatur" vindicated the choice made and most hearty commendations of his work came from the press and Sunday School workers from far and near.

He entered this new, and to him untried field, with a just appreciation of the magnitude of the task before him. He trembled in view of the great responsibilities the Church had called him to bear, yet in the fear of God and with faith in the promise given, he courageously began a work which daily grew dearer to his heart, and in the prosecution of which he never faltered till he heard the Master say: "It is enough; come up higher."

To only a few on earth will it ever be known—possibly to none but God himself—how he carried the interests of this great cause upon mind and heart; how he planned and worked for its enlarged success; how he pleaded for wisdom, grace, and strength that he might measure up to its constantly increasing demands. To none will it ever be known, how that in great weakness and bodily suffering he gave whatever of strength remained, that nothing be left undone that could in anywise minister to its good. And when his failing health admonished him that his work might be nearly done, his prayer as expressed to his friends and loved ones often was: "Lord, if I may work for thee, let me live and give me strength for service; if not take me home and let me rest."

But what shall we say more? Time would fail us to enumerate the many virtues of our brother, who has gone from among us. His earthly remains, by the side of father and mother and other relatives who had gone before, now sleep in the cemetery at Spartanburg, S. C., awaiting the resurrection of the just. Beneath those folded hands that now lie cold in death there rests a heart that was as loyal to truth, as true to its friendships and what it believed to be right as ever beat in a human bosom.

Falling at a time when he had scarcely reached the prime of his useful life, when his work was seemingly so effective for good, and when the Church so much needed his valuable services, is to us a mysterious providence whose depths we cannot fathom. We can only say: "It is the Lord; let him do what seemeth him good."

The many expressions of loving regard, which have appeared in resolutions adopted by Sunday Schools and in letters of condolence received by his family, furnish some token of the high esteem in which he was held by our people in all parts of the Church as well as of the loss sustained by his death. But by none was he so dearly loved or his loss so keenly felt as by those of his own Conference. For twenty-six years he labored faithfully among us. We now miss his worthy presence, his wise counsel, his brotherly greeting. But instead of murmuring, we thank God for the grace that enabled his servant in his life-work to accomplish so much in the time allotted, for the Church and the world. We sorrow not as those who have no hope; we look for the meeting time beyond the river. Till the morning break, farewell our brother and companion "in the patience and kingdom of Jesus Christ."

L. F. BEATY.

REV. THOMAS RAYSOR.

Rev. Thomas Raysor, M. D., was born in the Green Pond section of Colleton County, S. C., April 13, 1827; graduated in medicine at Philadelphia, Penn., in 1848. He practiced his profession for one year—when feeling “called of God to preach”—he gave up his expected life work, and in the year 1850, he was “admitted on trial” by the South Carolina Annual Conference. In the pastorate and in the Presiding Eldership he was faithful to every trust committed to his hands. To him God gave large success.

The ministerial office he emphasized. His call to preach was as real as that of Saul of Tarsus. He felt that he must preach the gospel, and preach it in the most effective way possible. That to go unprepared into the pulpit was a reflection on God and an imposition on the people. He would be no cobbler in the ministry. For this reason he was a close student as long as he lived. He bought and studied the best books. He delighted to bring out of God's book “things new and old.” In one of the last conversations that he ever had with me, he outlined a course of study that he had mapped out for himself, a course that would be exceedingly helpful to pulpit work. Possessing a fine mind and with this close and continuous application to study—he became a splendid preacher. The learned and the unlearned heard him gladly. His sermons were delivered with great unction. Take him sermon after sermon, and he would compare well with any man in this Conference. Like Apollas he was an eloquent man and mighty in the Scriptures. When he a few days ago reached the shining shore—scores and hundreds of those that he had led into “the narrow path” must have given him a royal welcome.

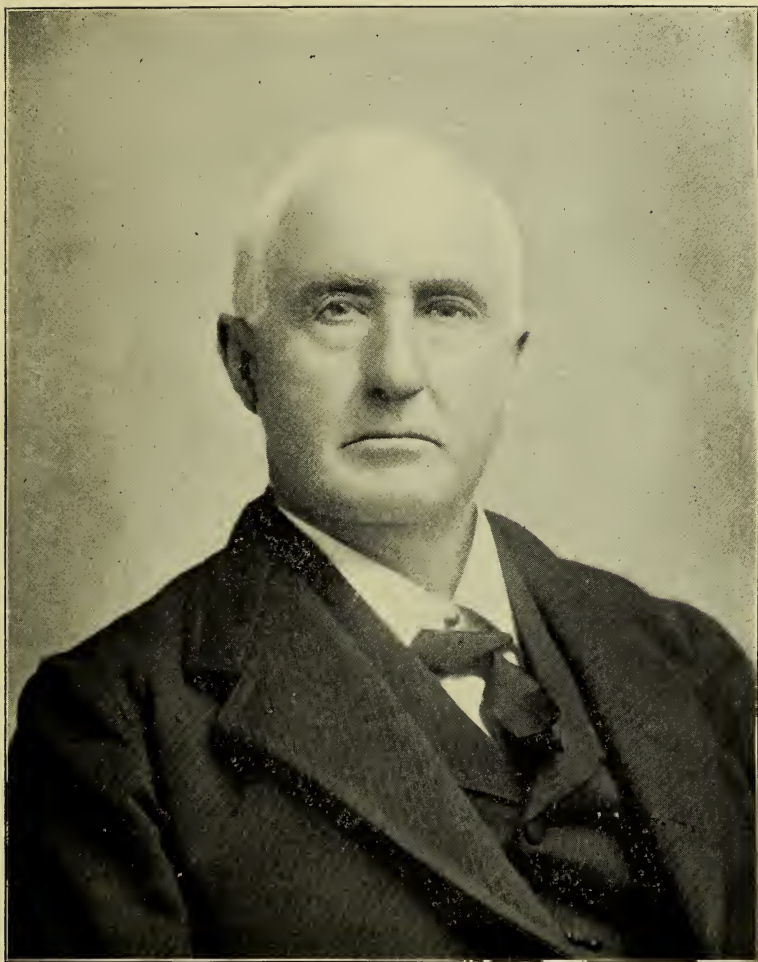

Pastoral work he didn't neglect. His sermons were followed by house to house visitation. In the homes of the people he was ever a welcome guest. In receiving him they felt that they were giving entertainment to one of God's angels. He was so modest, gentle and pleasant that the smallest child did not hesitate to climb into his lap, and to childhood's innocent prattle he gave an attentive ear. The result was, he was loved by old and young, the rich and the poor. They felt assured that in him, they had a sincere friend, a friend that would never prove false, a friend whose devotion would stand the test of the hottest fire and come forth as pure as Australian gold.

In the home circle he was seen in the light of true devotion. For wife and children his love was as boundless as the sea and as fervent as that of the angels for Heaven. His was a home of love. It was crowned with a diadem set with rare jewels. Here flashed the sapphire of kind words, the amethyst of thoughtful care, the emerald of devoted attention and the topaz of loving sympathy. Here relationship mingled into earthly bliss. Everything that he could do to make his home an earthly Eden was done—how well he succeeded the broken-hearted wife and sorrow-stricken children, who weep over his departure, fully know. To them it was paradise restored.

His Christianity was of the purest and most exalted character. He knew in whom he believed. With God he talked as friend with friend. Like Abraham he was the associate of God, like Enoch he walked every day in his company and like John he often rested his weary head upon the Divine bosom.

Often have I talked with him of his personal relationship to God and I am convinced that few men ever caught sweeter glimpses of the presence and favor of Jehovah.

At the Boiling Springs Camp-meeting last year, a sermon was preached at 11 o'clock on Saturday on “The Keeping Power of God.” During the delivery of the sermon Dr. Raysor became intensely stirred. At its close he shouted aloud the praises of God. After dinner I went to the preacher's tent. He was there alone. As I entered I saw that his face was shining like a seraph's and that his eyes blazed with a glory that was not of earth. seeing me, he said: "I am glad you have come, for I want to talk with you about what I have felt and seen to-day." Putting his arm around me we walked to the rear of the tent and sat down. For thirty minutes he talked. Would that I could recall that conversation—but it is impossible. Like Paul he had been caught up into the third Heaven. As we separated he said: "As I stand here on the mountain top of this experience, I feel like walking straight through the door into Heaven." Before him, the door seemed to have been thrown open wide.

A few days before his fatal illness, he wrote me a long letter. In it he spoke of the great pleasure he anticipated from attending this session of the Conference. God had prepared for him something far better. He did not respond to our roll call, for he has answered the roll call of Heaven. To-day he is with "the Saints of all Ages"—in the "land immortal."

Memoir of Preachers' Wives Who Died in 1896.

LILLIE EVELYN BETTS,
ANNA WILBUR KELLY,
MYRTLE McDONALD DUNCAN,
CALLIE ELLIS SNYDER.

The Committee on Memoirs feel that the sacred duty entrusted to them would not be performed did they fail to pay a tribute to the memory of the preachers' wives who have passed away during the year. Upon these handmaidens of the Lord depends in large measure, the success of their husbands' work, as well as the happiness of their lives. For their cheerful self-forgetfulness, and uncomplaining submission when necessary to trial and privation we hold them in honor while they live, and cherish their memory when they no longer move among us in their holy ministries. It is very fitting, therefore, that we should on this occasion speak a word in memory of the wives of preachers who have this year been called to their reward on high.

Mrs. Lillie Evelyn Betts, daughter of John C. and Lucy J. E. Wadsworth, and wife of Rev. W. A. Betts, died at the parsonage in Richburg, S. C., April 24, 1896. She was married on the 12th of May, 1881, and was the mother of six children, five of whom still live. Her character was one of rare loveliness and spiritual beauty. Her influence was a benediction not only upon her own home, but to many far and near who were permitted to know her. The esteem in which she was held in her husband's charge is shown by a beautiful memorial stone erected by the ladies over her grave.

Mrs. Anna Wilbur Kelly, widow of the late Rev. J. W. Kelly, and mother of Rev. M. B. Kelly, died at the home of the latter in Denmark, S. C., August 13, 1896. In early life she cheerfully undertook to share the trials and vicissitudes of a preacher's home. For many years thereafter she was the trusted counsellor and faithful helper of her husband in his work on Circuits, Stations, Districts, and in pioneer Mission work on the Pacific coast. And after her husband's death her presence in the itinerant home of her son was felt to be a blessing to all its inmates. "The heart of her husband safely trusted in her; her children also rise up and call her blessed."

Mrs. Myrtle McDonald, wife of Rev. W. T. Duncan, was married December 18, 1894, and died at Starr, Anderson County, S. C., August 15, 1896. Our young sister had entered upon the itinerant life with an earnestness and devotion that promised much usefulness, when the summons came that called her from work to reward. Her infant son, McDonald, died November 18, 1896.

Mrs. Callie Ellis Snyder, wife of Rev. Wesley J. Snyder, died at Jordan, S. C., September 23, 1896. She was the daughter of Mr. J. D. and Mrs. M. E. Ellis, of Hampton County, S. C., and was born February 18, 1876. For only fifteen months had she shared the lot of a Methodist preacher, but in that brief time she had greatly endeared herself to his parishioners. A kind, hopeful, and helpful Christian found early rest from the world's trials. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints."

Parents Who Have Daughters to Educate Should Investigate Carefully Five Points:

1. The place where the college they are thinking of is located. The kind of winter climate. The opportunities for learning outside the class-room. Accessibility, etc.

2. The equipment, comforts and conveniences, such as furniture, baths, heating system, closets, general hygienic arrangements, etc. Apparatus for teaching, library, reading rooms, art studios, literary societies, etc.

3. The courses of study. They should be comprehensive, thorough, modern, flexible. Why should a girl not be as well trained as a boy?

4. The faculty. Are the teachers masters in their departments? A weak or poorly trained teacher is worse than none at all.

5. Above all, the intellectual, moral, spiritual atmosphere. Is the emphasis upon Christian character? Is the college home distinctively religious?

The Columbia Female College

Courts investigation on all these points. The Trustees have spent a little over $16,000 during the past eighteen months to perfect our plant, and Methodists are invited to look into the advantages of their own College.

Spring Term Opens February 1, 1897.

TEN GOOD REASONS

FOR PATRONIZING THE

Williamston Female College.

1. It is situated in the quiet village of Williamston, in the beautiful Piedmont region of South Carolina, where clear, cool, sparkling water abounds, and the pure, healthful air has no taint of malaria. The celebrated Williamston Chalybeate Spring, about 200 yards from the College, is easily accessible every day.

2. Its pupils are treated as members of the College family, in sickness and in health. Teachers and pupils all sit at the same table, and enjoy the same home comforts and fare.

3. The number of boarding pupils is necessarily limited to about fifty. This fact gives each pupil assurance of that personal, maternal oversight and care which every young lady so greatly needs, and which she cannot possibly have in a very large institution, where the individual is unavoidably merged in the mass.

4. It possesses and uses excellent reference and circulating libraries, a well-equipped chemical laboratory, and carefully selected physical apparatus.

5. It does not burden its pupils with a number of difficult studies at once. In connection with composition, spelling, reading, &c., each pupil has only one principal study at a time. To this she gives almost exclusive attention for five weeks. She then drops it, and takes up another in the same way. This plan tends to prevent the dissipation of thought which always results from undertaking to master several difficult subjects at a time.

6. It does not put its pupils on the College stage on any public occasion. This feature secures an incalculable saving of time, money and modesty, and it is especially serviceable to studious pupils, in that it tends to keep away young ladies who think more of display than of the cultivation of their powers.

7. Graduation may occur at any season of the College year, whenever the candidate has finished the required course of study. The loss of a short time, for sickness or other cause, puts off one's graduation only a few weeks, instead of a whole year, as on the annual plan.

8. From the above facts it is manifestly possible to enforce a reasonably high standard of scholarship with less friction and difficulty than in an institution conducted in the usual way. How faithfully this has been done may be judged somewhat from the fact that, during the twenty-five years of the history of the College, it has turned out only ninety-nine graduates, an average of not quite four a year. All these are what are called full graduates. We have no others.

9. A new pupil entering, or a former pupil returning, after a temporary absence, is always furnished with appropriate work at the beginning of any one of the eight sections into which the school year is divided. The whole school is re-classified every section; and a new pupil begins the new section's work as conveniently as if she had come at the opening of the session.

10. Though not under the control of any Christian denomination, it is conducted on Christian principles; and its history has been frequently marked by signal displays of divine power in the conversion of many souls. Five of its pupils are now engaged in foreign missionary labors.
